CIRCULAR

Sub:- Submission of Ph.D. final theses - Revised copy of thesis - Reg.

Ref :- Orders of the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor on file No 33180 dated 08.09.2014

With reference to the above, the Heads of all Research Centres and Research supervisors are hereby informed the following regarding the submission of Ph.D. final theses and Viva-voce.

- 1) The last part of the bound volume of the theses should have research paper(s) or a list of publications emerged out of the research, as an appendix.
- 2). All the research papers emerged out of research should invariably contain the names of candidate, guide, co-guide (if any) and of the University of Calicut, and funding agency in the acknowledgement.
- 3) The corrections/suggestions recommended by the adjudicators are never seen incorporated in the reference copies of the theses kept in C.H.M.K. Library or concerned Department Library of the University as bonafied record, on which the Degree is awarded. So the candidates should submit TWO hard copies (for libraries) and ONE soft copy of the revised theses (for UGC) as per the corrections/suggestions from the adjudicators, to the Directorate of Research, one week in advance prior to the Open Defence and Viva-voce examination, for onward transmission to the Research Centre concerned and C.H.M.K Library. On the cover, it should be printed as "Revised Version" with a certification from the Research Supervisor. Therefore, number of bound copies of thesis required for initial submission for adjudication shall be limited to THREE. Even if the adjudicators recommend for the Award of Degree, the revised version based on the report to be submitted.
- 4). The effective date shall be 08-09-2014.
