No.F.G6/Accts/2016-17

27.12.2016

CIRCULAR

Those who propose to draw Contingent Advances for the purchase of various items for official use may procure the items on credit basis wherever possible; and furnish the credit bills along with supplier's bank details, so that the amount can be credited directly to the Supplier's Bank Account. This is part of implementing cashless transaction policy, and also to avoid crediting the amount into individual account which may create Income Tax issues.

Circulated to All: Through Intranet
